

THE WINSTON SENTINEL

THURSDAY MORNING, JAN. 23, 1890.

JUDICIAL ADVERTISING

REATES money on a note, house, etc.
REVIVES money on a note, house, etc.
RESOLVES money on a note, house, etc.
SAVES money on a note, house, etc.
PRESERVES money on a note, house, etc.
SECURES money on a note, house, etc.

The principal value of the SENTINEL to advertisers is the fact that it is not thrown away after once being read, but passes through half a dozen pairs of hands at least before being tossed aside. This is the advantage presented by a family newspaper.

HOME AND NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

—Capt. C. F. Bahannon, of Farmington, was in Winston this week.
—Mr. Thomas R. Pepper and bride have returned from their bridal tour.
—Mr. H. B. Peebles returned from a trip to Northampton county last week.

—Eight persons joined the Centenary M. E. Church by certificate last Sunday.
—Mr. A. E. Conrad, of Lewisville, gave the SENTINEL the pleasure of a call Saturday.

—Loo Sam, a genuine, almond-eyed Chinese washer-washer, has opened a laundry under the Winston House.

—Two car loads of negroes passed through Winston yesterday bound for Donahoe, to work on the Wilkesboro extension.

—Why suffer from constipation, when you have such a pleasant and positive remedy in Cascarine? Price 50c and $1.

—Mrs. Mamie Benton has returned from Raleigh, whither she accompanied Miss Fannie Williamson, who had been visiting in Winston.

—Headache speedily cured by the use of Cascarine. It regulates the stomach and cures indigestion. Price, 50c and $1.

—The "grip" has struck the Salem Academy, and scores of pretty little girls are carrying on a desperate handkerchief fight with it.

—The Salem Academy is so prospering that the building committee, and the trustees have decided to build another annex.

—Constipation is positively cured by the use of Cascarine. It regulates the liver and tones up the whole system. Price 50c and $1.

—One of the numerous and notorious hair-shirt negroes shot and killed a negro woman at Wilkesboro last Thursday night. He claims that the shooting was accidental.

—The SENTINEL was heartily glad to see Mr. M. L. Johnson, of Mocksville Academy and Mr. W. N. Coley, editor of the Times, in Winston Saturday.

—There was an excellent concert given by the Lorette club in the Salem Academy last Friday night, which the SENTINEL was unfortunately not home to see.

—A few doses of Cascarine will remove the dull, heavy feeling caused by a deranged condition of the stomach or an inactive liver. Price 50c and $1.

—That was a horrible affair—the attempt made to poison the family of Mr. Vaughn in Mudston. The SENTINEL prints the particulars, under the head of "Our Nearby Neighbors" on 4th page.

—Mr. J. H. Cox, living at Marvin Chapel, near Winston, paid the SENTINEL a visit Saturday and told us that they want a good teacher, a young man preferred. Applications should be addressed to Winston.

—Their many friends are glad to welcome the return of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ladd to Winston. For several months Mr. Ladd has been in Raleigh constructing that city's sewerage system, which, by the way, was admirably done and gave perfect satisfaction.

—Tom Hueke's dog, Satan, died of the grip last week. "Satan" was a setter, and his dog was seen watching the fish in the fountain at the hotel and trying to devise some way to catch them. He was well known to the travelling public and had many friends.

—The Centenary and Burkhead M. E. churches, and the Protestant Methodist churches will omit services next Sunday morning in order that their members may attend the dedicatory services of the new Presbyterian church, which will be held at that time.

—The verity of St. Paul's Episcopal church here, and he now has the call under consideration. We sincerely hope he will accept. He is a consecrated man of God and an exceptionally good preacher, and would do a good work in Winston.

—Messrs. Nat and Tom Wilson, who have been partners with Mr. Ham Scales in tobacco manufacturing, have bought out the latter gentleman's interest. They are among our most industrious and prominent young business men and the SENTINEL wishes them the greatest success.

—A negro girl was killed by the train Sunday morning near Friendship station. She was standing on the track and took no notice of the danger whistle. The engineer expected her to get to the car every second and it was too late to stop the train. She lived near Friendship and her mangled remains were taken home.

—Mr. W. H. Shepherd, ex-Democratic legislator from this county, last week was a witness in the Boyer-Teague case, and Mr. John Boyer, Republican legislator, afterwards testified and said something which reflected on Mr. Shepherd's veracity, whereupon the latter gentleman quietly told Reynolds what he thought of him, and when court was over, gave him a few licks as a reminder not to monkey with the business in future.

THE PEOPLE'S NATIONAL BANK

Who the Newly Elected Officers are And Other News.

The directors of Winston's new bank, the People's National, met last Friday night and organized for business by calling to the chair, Mr. Geo. L. Shepherd, President of the National Bank of Stateville and a large stockholder in the "People's National."

A ballot for officers resulted in the election of the following: W. A. Blair, of Winston, President; Geo. W. Hinchshaw, of Winston, Vice-President; Frank E. Patterson, of Philadelphia, Cashier; T. A. Wilson, of Winston, Teller; Frank L. Matthews, of Winston, Collector.

The election of Prof. W. A. Blair, Superintendent of Winston's Graded Schools, as president, was a surprise, but a very pleasant one. He has made a splendid success as an educator, indeed he ranks the foremost in North Carolina and his ability in all directions is widely known. He has invested his own earnings wisely, is known as a fine business man and will make a most excellent bank officer. His personal popularity with the people of Winston as well as his business ability make him a most valuable acquisition to the new bank and insures a good patronage.

Mr. Geo. W. Hinchshaw, the vice-president, is a sterling business man, largest and most successful mercantile business in Winston and possessing the confidence of all. To him, more than to any other man is due the credit of building the railroad from Winston westward through Wilkesboro. He is thoroughly familiar with the interests of Winston and is laboring successfully to advance this city.

Mr. Patterson, the cashier, is a brother-in-law to Mr. Lindsay Park, our townsmen, and is a young man of ability. His home is in Philadelphia, but for several years he has been in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury and comes with high commendations from Mr. Trenchard.

Mr. Wilson, the teller, is a son of Judge Wilson and for some time has been the head-book-keeper in the mammoth tobacco factory of Brown & Bro. He is thoroughly posted as to the financial standing of our citizens, is a thoroughly trained accountant and business man and enjoys an enviable popularity.

Mr. Frank L. Matthews, the collector, has started in at the bottom round of banking, with the intention of climbing to the top and he has every reasonable hope of doing it. He is a native of Yadkin county, has many high recommendations and will be a popular officer.

Mr. Rom. L. Cox, ex-treasurer of this county, was elected to fill a vacancy on the Board of Directors.

The banking room occupied by Mr. R. D. Johnson was purchased for the new banking house and the papers were signed on Tuesday. This building will be thoroughly fitted up with the latest improved bank fixtures and will be open for business by March, it is thought.

The People's National Bank starts out under favorable auspices. With a capital stock of $150,000, with popular and faithful officers and with the aid of money in this growing city, it has every element and every probability of a successful and useful career.

Three Marriages Last Week.

Three of our young townsmen exchanged the state of single "cussedness" for that of double blessedness last week.

Mr. F. R. Pepper, the popular junior partner in the firm of Vaughn & Pepper was married in Clarksville, Va., (the residence of the bride's father) to Miss Georgia Lipfert, also of Clarksville, Va., on Saturday.

Miss Bettie Baily at the residence of the bride's father at Walnut Cove and immediately left for a northern tour, joining Mr. and Mrs. R. Pepper in Washington City. Mr. Lipfert is popular and Miss Baily was both popular and beautiful.

Mr. H. Montague, a successful broker, and Miss Stella Nissen were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's father, Geo. E. Nissen, Esq., at Washington, near Winston, on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. H. A. Brown officiating. After the ceremony those present were invited to an elaborate dinner. The newly-wedded pair left on the evening train for a tour of southern cities.

A New Court House.

The present court house is a disgrace to Forsyth county. It is too small to accommodate half of the people who come in from the country to attend court. During the last week the court room has been jammed and packed, and the trial almost a jumble and a general confusion.

It is badly ventilated and badly lighted. It would do twenty years ago when the population was small, but it will not do today. This county is thickly settled and three times as many people come to court now as then. The county is one of the wealthiest in the State and is amply able to supply its citizens with a large, comfortable court house.

The people want such a building, and it is the duty of the county commissioners to call an election and let them vote for it at an early day. Will they do it? WILL THEY?

Re-Elected Grand Master.

Maj. Samuel H. Smith, of Winston, was re-elected Grand Master of Masons of North Carolina at the meeting of the grand lodge in Raleigh last week.

Prof. W. A. Blair was elected orator of the next meeting of the grand lodge.

Winston is highly honored by these honors to her citizens.

At the Warehouse.

The breaks of tobacco this week have been smaller than last, but are still large. Prices have not declined and the buyers are making each other bid lively. Leaf has been higher on this market during the last few months than it has for a long time, and it is probable that prices will continue high until the next crop is marketed.

CENSURED BY THE STATE SENATE

HOTEL QUINCEY.

Winston's New Hotel is One of the Neatest in N. C.

Mr. R. G. Quincy, who recently came from Raleigh and leased the old Merchants' Hotel, has transferred it to himself. Messrs. Reynolds and Gilmer, who own it, have had it entirely changed under Mr. Quincy's orders.

Both outside and inside have been thoroughly painted and repaired. A new kitchen has been added, and a complete electric apparatus has been put in by Mr. J. W. McFarland, the clever and efficient superintendent of the Winston electric light plant. Incandescent lights are on all the piazzas and in all the hallways. The office has been changed and enlarged and is furnished neatly and completely. An electric bell system goes to every room.

The bed rooms are as comfortable as any in North Carolina. Every room is carpeted and heated by a stove or open fireplace.

The furniture is very handsome. It is all of North Carolina make and as pretty as any that comes from the North. Many of the suits are of solid black walnut, some have marble topped tables, while other marble are made of North Carolina granite. The finest wood ever used for furniture.

Mr. Quincy's table is first-class. He furnishes as good a meal as a man wants and it is nicely cooked and served.

Northern tourists, seeking winter quarters, and home-folks who come to Winston on business or pleasure can always be certain of finding in this new hotel comfort and convenience at any time of the year.

Drummers will find four of the most conveniently arranged sample rooms we ever saw and will enjoy spending their Sundays here as well as their working days.

The SENTINEL inserts this description of the new hotel simply as information for its many readers who have occasion to come to Winston, and as a free advertisement for the town.

Marriage of Miss Lily Glenn.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Charles Lane Richmond and Miss Lily Glenn, to take place at Greensboro on the 29th inst.

Mr. Richmond is a prominent attorney of Estelville, Va., and a gentleman of the highest social position.

Miss Glenn is a native of Yadkin county and is sister to our citizens, Mrs. Fanny Hellen and Hon. W. B. Glenn. She is a young lady of the highest moral and social standing, and a very queen among women. She has the best wishes of a large number of friends here who know what a prize Mr. Richmond will win.

The marriage will be from the residence of Mrs. Settle, Miss Glenn's sister.

Two Interesting Sketches.

You will find on THE SENTINEL'S first page this week two interesting sketches. They are both concerning gentlemen who are natives of Forsyth county. One, entitled "Risen From the Dead" is about Capt. T. B. Roberts, who lives at Lewisville, this county, 77 years old—a man who is known of all men as an honest man, a Democrat and an intense southerner. The other, entitled "Risen From the Dead" is about Capt. T. B. Roberts, who lives at Lewisville, this county, 77 years old—a man who is known of all men as an honest man, a Democrat and an intense southerner.

Money in Stocks.

Our friend Joel F. Hill, Esq., of Winston's store, who has both body and brains enough to grace the Governor's chair, was in Winston last week and dropped in to see THE SENTINEL. He told us that the farmers of his neighborhood were never so prosperous as now. They raised a good tobacco crop, got high prices and have plenty of money—more than they ever had before.

The SENTINEL is very glad to hear it. There is no people under the sun who deserve prosperity more than the farmers of this section, and we do sincerely rejoice at our neighbors' abundance.

The Savings Bank.

In this SENTINEL you will find an advertisement of the Forsyth Five Cents Savings Bank, an institution organized solely for the benefit of the people. This bank pays no high salaries, rent or taxes, and the profits are divided out every 3 months among those who have kept their money on deposit the long. These profits have heretofore amounted to 5 per cent. per annum, and will probably never be less than that. It is a good place to put your money. It is absolutely safe and pays good interest. Further information can be obtained by calling at the bank and getting the by-laws.

The Boyer-Teague Case.

THE SENTINEL is indebted to Mr. Maxwell Gorman for the admirable detailed report of the evidence which we present elsewhere.

The testimony of witnesses closed yesterday, and to-day and possibly to-morrow will be consumed by the speeches of counsel. The case will probably go to the jury Saturday morning.

As a politician, forms, at 12 o'clock, Hon. W. B. Glenn, Boyer's counsel, is speaking. He has been speaking all the morning, and will probably finish before court adjourns for the day.

The SENTINEL'S Traveler.

This week Mr. W. M. Suggs has engaged with THE SENTINEL and is presenting sample copies to hundreds of farmers who are on our market. He will travel and solicit subscriptions for THE SENTINEL, and we bespeak him a cordial reception by our farmer friends.

Attention, Alliance.

The sub-agents of Forsyth county are requested by W. H. Worth, State agent, to meet Bro. S. O. Hotham, at 12 o'clock on Thursday, Jan. 30th, at his home in Winston, for information for business agents and alliances.

A DEAD BODY IN THE YADKIN.

Nobody Knows Who It Was or Where It Came.

Last Thursday the dead body of a man was found in the Yadkin river just above Deeply. Messrs. Reynolds and Gilmer, who own it, have had it entirely changed under Mr. Quincy's orders.

Both outside and inside have been thoroughly painted and repaired. A new kitchen has been added, and a complete electric apparatus has been put in by Mr. J. W. McFarland, the clever and efficient superintendent of the Winston electric light plant. Incandescent lights are on all the piazzas and in all the hallways. The office has been changed and enlarged and is furnished neatly and completely. An electric bell system goes to every room.

The bed rooms are as comfortable as any in North Carolina. Every room is carpeted and heated by a stove or open fireplace.

The furniture is very handsome. It is all of North Carolina make and as pretty as any that comes from the North. Many of the suits are of solid black walnut, some have marble topped tables, while other marble are made of North Carolina granite. The finest wood ever used for furniture.

Mr. Quincy's table is first-class. He furnishes as good a meal as a man wants and it is nicely cooked and served.

Northern tourists, seeking winter quarters, and home-folks who come to Winston on business or pleasure can always be certain of finding in this new hotel comfort and convenience at any time of the year.

Drummers will find four of the most conveniently arranged sample rooms we ever saw and will enjoy spending their Sundays here as well as their working days.

The SENTINEL inserts this description of the new hotel simply as information for its many readers who have occasion to come to Winston, and as a free advertisement for the town.

Marriage of Miss Lily Glenn.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Charles Lane Richmond and Miss Lily Glenn, to take place at Greensboro on the 29th inst.

Mr. Richmond is a prominent attorney of Estelville, Va., and a gentleman of the highest social position.

Miss Glenn is a native of Yadkin county and is sister to our citizens, Mrs. Fanny Hellen and Hon. W. B. Glenn. She is a young lady of the highest moral and social standing, and a very queen among women. She has the best wishes of a large number of friends here who know what a prize Mr. Richmond will win.

The marriage will be from the residence of Mrs. Settle, Miss Glenn's sister.

Two Interesting Sketches.

You will find on THE SENTINEL'S first page this week two interesting sketches. They are both concerning gentlemen who are natives of Forsyth county. One, entitled "Risen From the Dead" is about Capt. T. B. Roberts, who lives at Lewisville, this county, 77 years old—a man who is known of all men as an honest man, a Democrat and an intense southerner. The other, entitled "Risen From the Dead" is about Capt. T. B. Roberts, who lives at Lewisville, this county, 77 years old—a man who is known of all men as an honest man, a Democrat and an intense southerner.

Money in Stocks.

Our friend Joel F. Hill, Esq., of Winston's store, who has both body and brains enough to grace the Governor's chair, was in Winston last week and dropped in to see THE SENTINEL. He told us that the farmers of his neighborhood were never so prosperous as now. They raised a good tobacco crop, got high prices and have plenty of money—more than they ever had before.

The SENTINEL is very glad to hear it. There is no people under the sun who deserve prosperity more than the farmers of this section, and we do sincerely rejoice at our neighbors' abundance.

The Savings Bank.

In this SENTINEL you will find an advertisement of the Forsyth Five Cents Savings Bank, an institution organized solely for the benefit of the people. This bank pays no high salaries, rent or taxes, and the profits are divided out every 3 months among those who have kept their money on deposit the long. These profits have heretofore amounted to 5 per cent. per annum, and will probably never be less than that. It is a good place to put your money. It is absolutely safe and pays good interest. Further information can be obtained by calling at the bank and getting the by-laws.

The Boyer-Teague Case.

THE SENTINEL is indebted to Mr. Maxwell Gorman for the admirable detailed report of the evidence which we present elsewhere.

The testimony of witnesses closed yesterday, and to-day and possibly to-morrow will be consumed by the speeches of counsel. The case will probably go to the jury Saturday morning.

As a politician, forms, at 12 o'clock, Hon. W. B. Glenn, Boyer's counsel, is speaking. He has been speaking all the morning, and will probably finish before court adjourns for the day.

The SENTINEL'S Traveler.

This week Mr. W. M. Suggs has engaged with THE SENTINEL and is presenting sample copies to hundreds of farmers who are on our market. He will travel and solicit subscriptions for THE SENTINEL, and we bespeak him a cordial reception by our farmer friends.

Attention, Alliance.

The sub-agents of Forsyth county are requested by W. H. Worth, State agent, to meet Bro. S. O. Hotham, at 12 o'clock on Thursday, Jan. 30th, at his home in Winston, for information for business agents and alliances.

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM

[Under this heading The Sentinel invites the people to discuss public questions of present interest. It shall the press the people's rights, untrammelled by influence and untrammelled by gain.]

THA SUICIDE.

IN THE SENTINEL of January 16th, I see an account of a young lady in Forsyth county, Va., who (evidently in a state of insane delirium) committed suicide by jumping into a well.

Is it not true that both preachers and people reconsider the creeds and doctrines that lead to such shocking consequences? Statistics from our lunatic asylums show that more people become insane from religious melancholy, induced by great excitement, or the effort to believe unreasonable and conflicting doctrines, than from any other single cause, not excepting intemperance.

It is possible that such results can follow the preaching of the gospel of Him whose coming was announced by the angels as "the Son of Man." Is it not rather to be attributed to false doctrines, and false views of the Divine character, which, finding congenial soil in dark, fanatical and superstitious minds, are reflected in such hideous distortions of the divine attributes as to drive the strong minded into insanity or suicide?

Although the character of our Heavenly Father is fully expressed in the one word, love, such preachers do not hesitate to attribute to him feelings of wrath and vengeance, which would deepen the guilt of the greatest tyrant who ever lived on earth. They do not hesitate to lay upon the individual soul the accumulated guilt of the world from Adam to the present time, and account it a mortal sin, justly deserving the vengeance of God, to be born into this world. They have, however, provided a kind of spiritual bankruptcy law, by which the sinner can evade payment. Lacking sight of the fact that by a law of creation incorporated into the spiritual constitution of man, sin and its punishment are related to each other as cause and effect, and that the punishment can only be evaded by removing its cause, and notwithstanding the fact that teaching and practice of the apostles, which show that they required of the believer only the repentance (or turning away from his sins or stop sinning) and be baptized, teaching them afterwards to add to their faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperance, etc., this evasive doctrine has been taught, and notwithstanding the fact that they were thus able to save three thousand on the day of Pentecost without leaving one heart-broken mother behind, they have proceeded to teach that the sinner can evade payment, losing sight of the fact that by a law of creation incorporated into the spiritual constitution of man, sin and its punishment are related to each other as cause and effect, and that the punishment can only be evaded by removing its cause, and notwithstanding the fact that teaching and practice of the apostles, which show that they required of the believer only the repentance (or turning away from his sins or stop sinning) and be baptized, teaching them afterwards to add to their faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperance, etc., this evasive doctrine has been taught, and notwithstanding the fact that they were thus able to save three thousand on the day of Pentecost without leaving one heart-broken mother behind, they have proceeded to teach that the sinner can evade payment, losing sight of the fact that by a law of creation incorporated into the spiritual constitution of man, sin and its punishment are related to each other as cause and effect, and that the punishment can only be evaded by removing its cause, and notwithstanding the fact that teaching and practice of the apostles, which show that they required of the believer only the repentance (or turning away from his sins or stop sinning) and be baptized, teaching them afterwards to add to their faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperance, etc., this evasive doctrine has been taught, and notwithstanding the fact that they were thus able to save three thousand on the day of Pentecost without leaving one heart-broken mother behind, they have proceeded to teach that the sinner can evade payment, losing sight of the fact that by a law of creation incorporated into the spiritual constitution of man, sin and its punishment are related to each other as cause and effect, and that the punishment can only be evaded by removing its cause, and notwithstanding the fact that teaching and practice of the apostles, which show that they required of the believer only the repentance (or turning away from his sins or stop sinning) and be baptized, teaching them afterwards to add to their faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperance, etc., this evasive doctrine has been taught, and notwithstanding the fact that they were thus able to save three thousand on the day of Pentecost without leaving one heart-broken mother behind, they have proceeded to teach that the sinner can evade payment, losing sight of the fact that by a law of creation incorporated into the spiritual constitution of man, sin and its punishment are related to each other as cause and effect, and that the punishment can only be evaded by removing its cause, and notwithstanding the fact that teaching and practice of the apostles, which show that they required of the believer only the repentance (or turning away from his sins or stop sinning) and be baptized, teaching them afterwards to add to their faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperance, etc., this evasive doctrine has been taught, and notwithstanding the fact that they were thus able to save three thousand on the day of Pentecost without leaving one heart-broken mother behind, they have proceeded to teach that the sinner can evade payment, losing sight of the fact that by a law of creation incorporated into the spiritual constitution of man, sin and its punishment are related to each other as cause and effect, and that the punishment can only be evaded by removing its cause, and notwithstanding the fact that teaching and practice of the apostles, which show that they required of the believer only the repentance (or turning away from his sins or stop sinning) and be baptized, teaching them afterwards to add to their faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperance, etc., this evasive doctrine has been taught, and notwithstanding the fact that they were thus able to save three thousand on the day of Pentecost without leaving one heart-broken mother behind, they have proceeded to teach that the sinner can evade payment, losing sight of the fact that by a law of creation incorporated into the spiritual constitution of man, sin and its punishment are related to each other as cause and effect, and that the punishment can only be evaded by removing its cause, and notwithstanding the fact that teaching and practice of the apostles, which show that they required of the believer only the repentance (or turning away from his sins or stop sinning) and be baptized, teaching them afterwards to add to their faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperance, etc., this evasive doctrine has been taught, and notwithstanding the fact that they were thus able to save three thousand on the day of Pentecost without leaving one heart-broken mother behind, they have proceeded to teach that the sinner can evade payment, losing sight of the fact that by a law of creation incorporated into the spiritual constitution of man, sin and its punishment are related to each other as cause and effect, and that the punishment can only be evaded by removing its cause, and notwithstanding the fact that teaching and practice of the apostles, which show that they required of the believer only the repentance (or turning away from his sins or stop sinning) and be baptized, teaching them afterwards to add to their faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperance, etc., this evasive doctrine has been taught, and notwithstanding the fact that they were thus able to save three thousand on the day of Pentecost without leaving one heart-broken mother behind, they have proceeded to teach that the sinner can evade payment, losing sight of the fact that by a law of creation incorporated into the spiritual constitution of man, sin and its punishment are related to each other as cause and effect, and that the punishment can only be evaded by removing its cause, and notwithstanding the fact that teaching and practice of the apostles, which show that they required of the believer only the repentance (or turning away from his sins or stop sinning) and be baptized, teaching them afterwards to add to their faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperance, etc., this evasive doctrine has been taught, and notwithstanding the fact that they were thus able to save three thousand on the day of Pentecost without leaving one heart-broken mother behind, they have proceeded to teach that the sinner can evade payment, losing sight of the fact that by a law of creation incorporated into the spiritual constitution of man, sin and its punishment are related to each other as cause and effect, and that the punishment can only be evaded by removing its cause, and notwithstanding the fact that teaching and practice of the apostles, which show that they required of the believer only the repentance (or turning away from his sins or stop sinning) and be baptized, teaching them afterwards to add to their faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperance, etc., this evasive doctrine has been taught, and notwithstanding the fact that they were thus able to save three thousand on the day of Pentecost without leaving one heart-broken mother behind, they have proceeded to teach that the sinner can evade payment, losing sight of the fact that by a law of creation incorporated into the spiritual constitution of man, sin and its punishment are related to each other as cause and effect, and that the punishment can only be evaded by removing its cause, and notwithstanding the fact that teaching and practice of the apostles, which show that they required of the believer only the repentance (or turning away from his sins or stop sinning) and be baptized, teaching them afterwards to add to their faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperance, etc., this evasive doctrine has been taught, and notwithstanding the fact that they were thus able to save three thousand on the day of Pentecost without leaving one heart-broken mother behind, they have proceeded to teach that the sinner can evade payment, losing sight of the fact that by a law of creation incorporated into the spiritual constitution of man, sin and its punishment are related to each other as cause and effect, and that the punishment can only be evaded by removing its cause, and notwithstanding the fact that teaching and practice of the apostles, which show that they required of the believer only the repentance (or turning away from his sins or stop sinning) and be baptized, teaching them afterwards to add to their faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperance, etc., this evasive doctrine has been taught, and notwithstanding the fact that they were thus able to save three thousand on the day of Pentecost without leaving one heart-broken mother behind, they have proceeded to teach that the sinner can evade payment, losing sight of the fact that by a law of creation incorporated into the spiritual constitution of man, sin and its punishment are related to each other as cause and effect, and that the punishment can only be evaded by removing its cause, and notwithstanding the fact that teaching and practice of the apostles, which show that they required of the believer only the repentance (or turning away from his sins or stop sinning) and be baptized, teaching them afterwards to add to their faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperance, etc., this evasive doctrine has been taught, and notwithstanding the fact that they were thus able to save three thousand on the day of Pentecost without leaving one heart-broken mother behind, they have proceeded to teach that the sinner can evade payment, losing sight of the fact that by a law of creation incorporated into the spiritual constitution of man, sin and its punishment are related to each other as cause and effect, and that the punishment can only be evaded by removing its cause, and notwithstanding the fact that teaching and practice of the apostles, which show that they required of the believer only the repentance (or turning away from his sins or stop sinning) and be baptized, teaching them afterwards to add to their faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperance, etc., this evasive doctrine has been taught, and notwithstanding the fact that they were thus able to save three thousand on the day of Pentecost without leaving one heart-broken mother behind, they have proceeded to teach that the sinner can evade payment, losing sight of the fact that by a law of creation incorporated into the spiritual constitution of man, sin and its punishment are related to each other as cause and effect, and that the punishment can only be evaded by removing its cause, and notwithstanding the fact that teaching and practice of the apostles, which show that they required of the believer only the repentance (or turning away from his sins or stop sinning) and be baptized, teaching them afterwards to add to their faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperance, etc., this evasive doctrine has been taught, and notwithstanding the fact that they were thus able to save three thousand on the day of Pentecost without leaving one heart-broken mother behind, they have proceeded to teach that the sinner can evade payment, losing sight of the fact that by a law of creation incorporated into the spiritual constitution of man, sin and its punishment are related to each other as cause and effect, and that the punishment can only be evaded by removing its cause, and notwithstanding the fact that teaching and practice of the apostles, which show that they required of the believer only the repentance (or turning away from his sins or stop sinning) and be baptized, teaching them afterwards to add to their faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperance, etc., this evasive doctrine has been taught, and notwithstanding the fact that they were thus able to save three thousand on the day of Pentecost without leaving one heart-broken mother behind, they have proceeded to teach that the sinner can evade payment, losing sight of the fact that by a law of creation incorporated into the spiritual constitution of man, sin and its punishment are related to each other as cause and effect, and that the punishment can only be evaded by removing its cause, and notwithstanding the fact that teaching and practice of the apostles, which show that they required of the believer only the repentance (or turning away from his sins or stop sinning) and be baptized, teaching them afterwards to add to their faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperance, etc., this evasive doctrine has been taught, and notwithstanding the fact that they were thus able to save three thousand on the day of Pentecost without leaving one heart-broken mother behind, they have proceeded to teach that the sinner can evade payment, losing sight of the fact that by a law of creation incorporated into the spiritual constitution of man, sin and its punishment are related to each other as cause and effect, and that the punishment can only be evaded by removing its cause, and notwithstanding the fact that teaching and practice of the apostles, which show that they required of the believer only the repentance (or turning away from his sins or stop sinning) and be baptized, teaching them afterwards to add to their faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperance,